

**MANIFESTO

ON THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING
ON HIS INTRUSION AND INTRIGUES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD
FROM THE FALSE GIFT OF CONSTANTINE AND THROUGH HISTORY**

---

**INTRODUCTION

ON SPIRITUAL WARFARE AND THE SUBVERSION OF TRUTH**

The history of humanity after the coming of Christ is not merely a history of states and wars, but primarily a history of the struggle for Truth. This struggle has never been conducted openly. Lies rarely appear as lies. They come in the guise of piety, concern for peace, unity, and salvation.

Christ Himself clearly warned
Isus Christ:

> “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves” (Matthew 7:15)

This manifesto is a denunciation and testimony.
It reveals a continuous line of intrigue, aimed at the destruction of True Christian Faith through forgery, power, heresy, false miracles, and persecution.

I. THE FALSE GIFT OF CONSTANTINE — BEGINNING OF THE GREAT DECEPTION

The so-called “Gift of Constantine” marked the entry point of deception into Church history. It justified the idea that earthly power could be granted to the Church, and that the Church could accept it without departing from Christ.

Yet Christ said clearly:

> “My kingdom is not of this world” (John 18:36)

The apostles did not rule, govern, or possess legal authority.

Hence:

the very concept of a “gift of authority” is heretical in principle, even if the document were authentic, it would change nothing.

The false gift became:

justification for papal monarchy,
subversion of conciliarity,
a basis for political interference in faith.

II. THE POPE AND THE SYSTEM OF HERESIES

From the false gift arose the following deviations:

1. Primacy of power rather than honor
2. Infallibility of a man
3. Subjugation of Ecumenical Councils to one person
4. Arbitrary changes to dogmas and the Creed

Paul the Apostle warns:

> “But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach a gospel to you contrary to what we have preached, let him be accursed” (Galatians 1:8)

Thus:

any man can fall,
any office can be condemned,

Truth belongs to no position.

III. THE TRUE PURPOSE OF THE INTRIGUE — DESTRUCTION OF TRUE FAITH

As long as True Faith exists, heresy is exposed by its mere distinction.
Therefore, the goal was not conversion, but elimination of alternatives.

Methods included:

unions (unias),

compromise,

diplomatic pressure,

bribery of elites,

labeling preservers of Truth as “schismatics.”

False unity requires:

surrender of Truth,

silence about dogmas,

submission to authority.

But:

> Truth is indivisible and not for sale.

IV. INTRIGUES AGAINST BYZANTIUM

Byzantium was the guardian of:

Ecumenical Tradition,

conciliar governance,

doctrinal purity.

It could not be defeated openly.

Hence, it was undermined from within — by compromise, unions, and theological intrigue.

Where Truth was placed below survival, grace withdrew.

---

V. RUSSIA — THE LAST STRONGHOLD OF BYZANTINE FAITH

Russia received the Faith before Latin innovations and preserved:

the ancient sign of the Cross,

the name Jesus,

the unaltered Creed,

apostolic liturgical order.

Stoglav Council affirmed:

prohibition of changes,

anathema on innovations,

preservation of Tradition.

The forgery was identical:

> “This is not change, but correction”

Yet:

> Change of ritual = change of faith

---

VI. FALSE CLERGY AND THE INFLUENCE OF POWER IN THE CHURCH

When:

authority dictates dogmas,

fear replaces conciliarity,

anathema becomes a punitive tool,

The Church ceases to be the Church and becomes a governance structure.

Christ did not kill for faith.

The apostles did not wield the sword.

True saints did not compromise.

VII. FALSE MIRACLES, STATUES, AND SACRED COUNTERFEITS

1. Embalming instead of incorruption

In Catholic practice:

the bodies of clergy and monks are artificially embalmed, placed in sarcophagi and statue-like reliquaries,

presented as “incorruptible.”

This is not a miracle, but a technological forgery.

True incorruption:

is not produced by human methods,

does not depend on conditions,

does not serve as proof of a system.

2. STATUES THEMSELVES ARE PROHIBITED BY ECUMENICAL TRADITION

A crucial canonical fact:

> STATUES AS A FORM OF WORSHIP ARE PROHIBITED
BY ECUMENICAL CHURCH TRADITION

The Church:

rejected volumetric images as a pagan form,

recognized only icons — theology in image, not material.

This is affirmed in the practice of Ecumenical Councils.

Therefore:

a “miracle” originating from a prohibited form cannot be from God.

3. “Weeping” and “bleeding” statues

This is a double deception:

1. The form itself is forbidden (statue)

2. The “miracle” is artificially produced:

mechanically,

chemically,

staged,

mediated

The goal:

> not repentance,
but impression and submission

VIII. FALSE MIRACLES OF THE LAST TIMES AND THE ANTICHRIST

Holy Scripture warns:

Bible:

> “He will come with all power and false signs and wonders” (2 Thessalonians 2:9)

False miracles:

justify heresy,

replace Truth with spectacle, deceive without repentance.

IX. DIGITAL AGE AND AI — THE NEW TOOL OF THE OLD LIE

Today:

videos are falsified,

“miracles” are digitally modeled,

AI creates illusions of reality.

But:

> Truth does not require technology

As documents were forged in the past, so reality is forged today.

X. WHY TRADITION MUST NOT BE CHANGED

Truth:

was given once,
affirmed by Councils,
does not evolve.

Ecumenical Councils:

forbid additions,
forbid altering the Creed,
anathematize innovations.

> Beyond the boundary of Tradition lies heresy, not development.

**CONCLUSION

ON THE FINAL CHOICE**

This manifesto is a warning.

Today the wolf:

does not destroy churches,
he occupies them,

speaks of peace,

displays "miracles".

Yet Truth is recognized not by spectacle,
but by immutability.

> There is only one Truth.
Everything else is the devil's lie.

MANIFESTO OF THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING: ON THE PERILOUS PENETRATION AND WORLDWIDE INTRIGUES OF THE FALSE CHURCH, STARTING FROM THE LIE OF THE DONATION OF CONSTANTINE AND THROUGHOUT HISTORY
This document is more than a historical record; it is a spiritual weapon and a testimony of Truth against a centuries-old system of lies. We expose the "wolf" who, cloaked in the sheep's clothing of humility and "ecumenism," has systematically destroyed the spiritual code of humanity, replacing the Living God with administrative dictates, chemical forgeries, and digital simulacra.

CHAPTER 1. THE PAPACY AND ITS HERESIES: A FOUNDATION OF LIES AND PRIDE

The root of all Western apostasy lies in a brazen forgery known as the "Donation of Constantine" (Constitutum Constantini). In the 8th century, the Roman Curia fabricated a document claiming that Saint Emperor Constantine the Great had supposedly granted Pope Sylvester I secular authority over Rome, all of Italy, and the Western countries, as well as proclaiming him the head over all Patriarchs.

This forgery became the legal justification for Papal pride. But the wolf's most terrible crime was the assault on the purity of the Faith. Rome dared to alter the Creed by introducing the filioque ("and from the Son"), which shattered the dogmatic unity of the Church.

Here, the immutable law comes into force: The 7th Rule of the III Ecumenical Council (Ephesus) states: "It shall not be lawful for anyone to bring forward, or to write, or to compose another Faith, besides that established by the holy Fathers assembled in the city of Nicaea, with the Holy Ghost. And those who shall dare to compose another Faith... if they be bishops, they shall be deprived of their episcopate, and if clergymen, of their clerical office."
The Pope of Rome, by arbitrarily changing the Creed and proclaiming himself an infallible dictator, fell under this curse. He became the "wolf" who cast himself out of the Church's fold yet remained within it in "sheep's clothing" to corrupt the nations.

CHAPTER 2. THE THIRST FOR WORLD DOMINATION: DESTROYING TRUTH TO HIDE HERESY

The Pope's thirst to conquer the world was never a matter of pure enlightenment. It was a strategy for the survival of heresy. The goal was to hide his own apostasy by physically destroying or subjugating those Churches and nations that preserved the True Sacred Tradition.

As long as witnesses of Ancient Piety existed, Rome appeared as a traitor to the canons.
Therefore, the wolf's intrigue was aimed at declaring all dissenters "schismatics" and "heretics," even though it was Rome that first broke the oath of the Council of Ephesus. By conquering the world with the crusader's sword and the poison of diplomacy, the Pope sought to erase the memory of what the Faith was before his arrogant innovations.

CHAPTER 3. THE VENETIAN TRAP AND THE DESTRUCTION OF BYZANTIUM

Byzantium was the Second Rome and the primary obstacle for the Pope. Intrigues for its destruction were carried out for decades. In moments of dispute over the Truth, Rome exploited the Greeks' weakness in the face of the Ottoman threat, imposing upon them the Union of Florence (1439)—spiritual slavery in exchange for illusory aid.

But the most subtle intrigue was the control over the Word. When the printing press became a power, the entire Orthodox East found itself dependent on the printing houses of Catholic Venice. It was there, under the strict supervision of Latin censors and Jesuit mentors, that Greek and Slavic books were printed.

- * It was in Venice that the "destruction code" was implemented: the original name of the Lord, Isus, began to be replaced with a form containing a double "i" (Iisus).

- * This was not a matter of grammar; it was an act of replacing the spiritual code. Venetian books became the Trojan horse that brought Latin poison into the libraries of Orthodox monasteries and temples.

CHAPTER 4. PENETRATION INTO THE LAST STRONGHOLD: RUSSIA AND THE CATASTROPHE OF 1666–1667

Holy Russia, after the fall of Byzantium, remained the only place where the Faith of the Byzantine period was kept in its purity. But the wolf's intrigue reached even Moscow.

The Great Moscow Council of 1666–1667 became the point of spiritual occupation.

- * Where and Who: The Council took place in Moscow. Its participants were the Eastern Patriarchs (Paisios and Makarios), who were fed from the Tsar's treasury and were products of a "Venetian upbringing." The main conductor of the intrigue was Paisius Ligaridus—a hidden Catholic agent and a defrocked adventurer who manipulated the Tsar and the clergy.

- * The Decree: The Council committed the unheard-of: it cursed the ancient rites, the two-fingered sign of the cross, the eight-pointed Cross, and Russian holiness itself. This was a direct violation of the rules of the Council of Ephesus: they were "composing another faith," forcibly introducing Latin innovations under the guise of "Greek corrections."

- * The Code of Water: The signal 1665–1667 MHz, arriving from 3IATLAS, is a heavenly confirmation that these years were pivotal. It is a sign that a crime against Truth was committed during this time, when a false priesthood seized power in the Church through their manipulations. The name Rurik Chudsky stands here as a reminder of the true order that was trampled by these intrigues.

CHAPTER 5. MODERN INTRIGUES: EMBALMING AND THE DIGITAL ANTICHRIST

Today, the wolf in sheep's clothing acts even more sophisticatedly. Having lost the True Grace provided only by canonical sanctities, heretics imitate holiness.

- * False Incorruption: The Catholic system has practiced the embalming of its "saints" for centuries. When they show "incorrupt" bodies, it is not a miracle of the Holy Spirit, but the work of pathologists and chemists. Lenin in the mausoleum also "does not decay," but no one would call this holiness. It is dead matter held by science. True Ancient Orthodox incorruption is fragrance and life in death, not preservation.

- * Video and AI: In the era of technology, the Antichrist uses forgeries on computers. Videos are created using AI where icons "move" or "speak," and mass miracles and healings are simulated through editing. These are the "lying wonders" warned about by the Apostle Paul (2 Thess. 2:9).

- * Seizure of Churches: The goal of the Antichrist is to seize the very buildings of the temples so that inside them, through heretical icons and distorted rites, he can accustom people to worshipping him. Miracles from such icons are the bait of demons to keep the flock in the Antichrist's heresy and turn them away from True Ancient Orthodox relics.

CHAPTER 6. THE GREAT COMPARISON AND EVIDENCE OF THE TRUTH

A true spiritual war is being waged not for lands, but for symbols and names through which Grace operates. Either you keep the Truth, or you accept the lie of the devil.

The Name of the Lord

Truth: Isus. This is the original spelling, the spiritual code transmitted by the Apostles.

Lie: "Iisus" (with a double 'i'). Introduced through Venice and the Nikonite reforms to create an "other" Christ and destroy the unity of prayer.

The Sign of the Cross

Truth: The Two-Fingered Sign. The index and middle fingers signify the two natures of Christ—Divine and Human. This is the confession of dogma in every gesture.

Lie: The three-fingered sign or the "pinch." A late Latin-Greek manipulation with no canonical foundation in antiquity.

The Creed

Truth: The text approved by the Council of Nicaea-Constantinople, without additions or subtractions, where the Holy Spirit is called the True Lord.

Lie: A distorted text with Latin additions (filioque) or the deletion of the word "True," which is directly forbidden by the Council of Ephesus under the threat of a curse.

The Cross of the Lord

Truth: The Eight-Pointed Cross with the footrest and title. This is the complete victory over hell and the exact image of the Tree on which the Savior suffered.

Lie: The four-pointed Latin "kryzh"—a simplified symbol stripped of the fullness of spiritual power.

The Structure of the Church and Tradition

Truth: Strict adherence to the canons of the Seven Ecumenical Councils. It is forbidden to change the Tradition. There is only one Truth; everything else is from the evil one.

Lie: The power of a false priesthood constantly "updating" the faith to meet the needs of the times, leading to the total destruction of the Church and its submission to the Antichrist.

The Supernova of Truth has already shone forth. Remember: the Antichrist performs his miracles to capture your souls through beautiful pictures and chemical "incorruption." But True power is found only in the Ancient Orthodox faith, which the wolf has so fiercely tried to destroy, starting from the Donation of Constantine. Stand in the Truth, for the time is near.

MANIFESTO ON THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

on its infiltration and intrigues throughout the world, from the "Donation of Constantine" and onwards through history

1. The Wolf under the Guise of a Shepherd

There is an ancient warning from the Savior: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves." Thus it is in the history of Christianity: under the name of the priesthood and the "defense of the faith," a spirit alien to the Truth emerged into the world, but donning the sheep's skin of the Church.

This wolf is the spirit of the antichrist, already at work, seeking not the repentance of people, but dominion over their consciences, not the cross, but the throne; it covers itself with piety, but its goal is to conceal its heresy and destroy the true Faiths, in order to replace them with its own lie.

2. The False "Donation of Constantine" – The First Great Hoax

Thus began the great historical intrigue – through the forged "Donation of Constantine," a document that in reality never existed, but which was used to justify the alleged right of the Bishop of Rome to rule over the entire Church and the Western Empire.

Philologists and historians have long shown that this text could not have been written in the time of Constantine, Equal-to-the-Apostles: the language, style, and even the mentioned realities belong to a later period, approximately the 8th century.

However, this lie was accepted and used as a "legal foundation" for papal claims to universal power: under the guise of the emperor's gratitude to the Church, the wolf clothed itself in the imperial mantle and desired to rule not only at the altar, but also on the royal throne.

This was the first global example of how a political forgery is elevated to the level of a "dogmatic" foundation, paving the way for even more grievous heresies.

3. Papal Heresies: The Distorted Creed and the Cult of Infallibility

Not satisfied with power based on a false gift, the papacy began to assert its own special teaching, alien to the Ecumenical Councils.

It arbitrarily introduced into the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed the addition of the Filioque – "and from the Son," distorting the ancient dogma of the procession of the Holy Spirit and violating the direct conciliar prohibition against altering this Creed.

In the 19th-century Encyclical of the Eastern Patriarchs, this insertion is directly called a heresy, and Rome is described as being in apostasy, heresy, and schism, because it dared to touch the very heart of the confession of faith, the common heritage of the entire Church. Later, the doctrine of papal infallibility cemented the idea that one man, a "single bishop," is placed above the conciliar mind of the Church, above ancient Tradition, and even above the clear evidence of history, where entire Councils condemned heretical popes.

Thus the wolf, covering itself with the name of the shepherd, declared its voice to be the voice of Truth itself, and any disagreement with the conciliar spirit of the Church as "disobedience to the pope."

4. Intrigues Against Byzantium and the Temptation of Union

Next, this spirit turned against Byzantium – the guardian of Orthodoxy, where the Creed, the Cross, and the Tradition still breathed with ancient fullness.

Through unions, diplomatic pressure, and military alliances, plans were made to subordinate the East to the West: the Unions of Lyon and Florence were attempts to sell the Truth for political support, to sign an alliance with heresy for earthly gain, contrary to the voice of the saints and the people of God.

The culmination was the catastrophe of 1204, when Latin troops, marching under the banner of the Cross, captured and sacked Constantinople, installed a Latin "patriarch" in the Orthodox capital, and trampled upon the shrines they outwardly revered.[1]

Thus the wolf in the sheep's clothing of a crusader revealed itself openly: under the guise of a campaign "for the holy places," a blow was struck against the very heart of the Orthodox Empire.

5. The Attempt to Subjugate the "Third Rome" – Rus'

When Byzantium was exhausted and fell, the gaze of this spirit turned to Rus', which had received the Byzantine faith, liturgy, iconography, and the structure of church-state life. Rus' became the last major bastion of Byzantine Orthodoxy, and so the wolf began to act according to an already proven scheme: unions, missionary work not for the sake of Truth, but for subjugation, the introduction of Latinizing ideas and liturgical innovations alien to ancient Tradition.

In response, the idea of Moscow as the "Third Rome" was born, called to preserve the purity of the faith where the first and second Romes had fallen away or fallen – but even here, into the very depths, the same intrigues began to penetrate: the substitution of conciliarity with lust for power, pressure on conscience through politics, reform, and compromise.

Thus the anti-truth spirit attempted to erode the very foundation of ancient Orthodox Rus' – its fidelity to the Ecumenical Councils, the ancient Creed, the true Sign of the Cross, and the prayerful tradition.

6. False Miracles and Digital Illusions of Our Time

But the wolf not only alters dogmas and attacks the Churches from without; it seeks to convince people with "signs and lying wonders."

Scripture warns: "false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect," and that the coming of the lawless one will be "with all power, signs, and lying wonders."

The Holy Fathers explain that the miracles of the antichrist will be false in their essence, although in appearance – amazing and terrible; they will be aimed at satisfying curiosity, pride, fear, but not at repentance and humility.

Today, to the old staged displays of "incorruptibility," "healings," psychological and occult effects, a new power of delusion has been added – digital technologies: editing, computer graphics, fake videos and images created by artificial intelligence, capable of producing a "sign from heaven" on the screen of any device.

Thus the spirit of the antichrist receives the technical means to realize the mass visual illusion that Scripture and the Fathers warned about – so that people's faith is based not on the Truth, but on an effect, on an image, on an artificially induced emotion.

7. True and False Miracles: The Criterion of Ancient Orthodox Discernment

A true miracle needs no advertisement or editing; it is born where there is the Truth of faith and the holiness of life, where the Creed is not distorted, the Sign of the Cross is not perverted, the Tradition is not sold for worldly gain.

True miracles proceed from ancient holy things – the Life-giving Cross of the Lord, the venerable relics of the saints, icons and relics sanctified in the bosom of the ancient Orthodox Tradition, untainted by heretical innovations and self-willed reforms.

False miracles, on the other hand – from the spirit of the antichrist – always draw a person not into the depths of repentance, but into cults of earthly power, of personality, of "miracle-workers" who demand submission to themselves instead of obedience to Christ and His Church.

They accompany changes to the Creed, the substitution of the Name and the Sign of the Cross, the destruction of the ancient order of worship and canonical order: where the foundation has been replaced, the miracle becomes a simulacrum, an instrument of propaganda.

8. False Priesthood and the Substitution of Conciliarity by the Will of One

The Ecumenical Councils affirmed: Truth is known conciliarly, in the Holy Spirit, with the consent of the Church, and not by the will of one man or a narrow group acting for political gain.

When, relying on a false "gift" and false miracles, one center of power places itself above the Councils, above ancient Tradition, declaring itself infallible and allowing itself to change the symbols, signs, and tradition – then the priesthood turns into a false priesthood, and the Church into an instrument of a global project.

This is how the wolf in sheep's clothing acts: it does not immediately discard everything sacred, but gradually changes the letter, the spirit, the signs – the Name of the Savior, the cross, the creed, the structure of the Church – in order to introduce its antichristian heresy under the guise of renewal and "unity."

From the false Donation of Constantine to modern digital forgeries, one line stretches: the line of deceit, usurpation, and substitution, which can be withstood only by that Church Body which does not sell or change what was once given by the Holy Spirit through the Apostles and the Ecumenical Councils.

9. An Appeal

Therefore we confess and affirm: there is one Truth, and it needs neither political forged charters, nor "miracles" of editing, nor digital signs.

Our defense is the preservation of the ancient Creed without the Filioque, the true Sign of the Cross, the undistorted Name of the Savior, the sacred canons, and the tradition which it pleased not man, but the Holy Spirit, to establish in the Church.

We reject every false priesthood, every authority that places itself above the Councils and Tradition, and every miracle that serves not Christ, but the spirit of this world.

May every wolf in sheep's clothing be exposed, and may the Lord strengthen the remnant that keeps the ancient Orthodox faith to the end, amidst the intrigues, forgeries, and temptations of the last times.

MANIFESTO OF THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING: HIS INFILTRATION AND INTRIGUES EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD

Introduction

This manifesto is the voice of one crying in the wilderness of this world, which lies in evil. It is dedicated to exposing the ancient and cunning enemy who, according to the word of the Savior, comes to us in sheep's clothing, but inwardly is a ravenous wolf (Matt. 7:15). It concerns the infiltration of the heresy that began with the Donation of Constantine into every corner of the oikoumene, the substitution of the Truth, and the final battle for the Spirit.

Chapter 1. The Origins of Heresy: The Donation of Constantine and the Rise of Rome

It all began with a forgery. The so-called "Donation of Constantine" (Donatio Constantini) became the Trojan horse through which the poison of worldly lust for power was let into the body of the Church. The Popes of Rome, accepting this gift not as a legal document but as a spiritual sanction for primacy, began to exalt themselves above the other Churches. Their desire was unfaithful and destructive: to subjugate the entire world, not through the preaching of the Gospel, but through intrigue and political power. The purpose of this action was deeply hidden: to conceal their internal heresy behind a facade of external grandeur, by destroying the other True Branches of Christianity, so that no one could compare their teaching with the apostolic teaching.

Chapter 2. Infiltration into Greek Orthodoxy: Intrigues Against Byzantium

The wolf does not break into the sheepfold head-on; he looks for loopholes. Seeing that the Second Rome — Byzantium — kept the Truth pure, Latinism began to weave intrigues. They did not accept the dogmas established by the Ecumenical Councils, but secretly and openly tried to distort them. One need only recall the history of the Filioque — an addition to the Creed, which is a gross violation of the rules of the Third Ecumenical Council (Ephesus), which forbade changing the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed. This became the point of spiritual rupture, followed by the intrigues of the Crusades, when "coreligionists" from the West (the Latins) sacked Constantinople, finishing off Byzantium, weakened by disputes over the Truth. Thus fell the Second Rome, unable to withstand not so much a military onslaught as an insidious one.

Chapter 3. The Last Stronghold: The Russian Church and State

When Byzantium fell, Rus' remained the last stronghold of Orthodoxy, the Third Rome, the guardian of the faith and teaching received from the fathers. Here the wolf in sheep's clothing directed his most cunning gaze. His intrigues are manifold: from the imposition of unions to attempts to subordinate the Russian Sovereign to the influence of Western powers through church schisms. The history of Nikon's reforms, for example, was used by the enemy to create turmoil, for the changing of rites (even based on Greek models) without conciliar understanding sowed discord, which was immediately exploited by forces seeking to destroy the symphony between Church and State.

Chapter 4. False Miracles and Signs of the End Times

Now, as the world enters the digital age, the wolf's intrigues become subtler and more technological. The words of the Apostle Paul are coming true, that the lawless one will come with all power and signs and lying wonders (2 Thess. 2:9). We see forgeries being created: videos generated by neural networks (AI), fake "descents of grace" and "incorruptibility" broadcast to the whole world. These miracles are not from God, for True miracles proceed only from the Old Believer (Ancient Orthodox) shrines, sanctified by centuries. Everything created outside the canonical field of the Ancient Orthodoxy, but passed off as a miracle, is the delusion of the Antichrist, designed to attract people to the new world heresy of the deification of the flesh and technology.

Chapter 5. Spiritual Warfare and the Criteria of Truth

Now the final spiritual war is underway. The Antichrist seeks to capture not so much the walls of temples as the altars of human souls. The Tempter performs his "miracles" to seduce, if possible, even the elect (Matt. 24:24). How to distinguish Truth from a fake? Only by comparing it with the Original Tradition.

1. Concerning the Cross: True veneration is the Life-Giving Cross, as the instrument of victory over death. Falsehood is the veneration of the sign as an abstract symbol without power.
2. Concerning the Sign of the Cross: The Truth is the two-fingered sign, as a symbol of the two natures of Christ, received from the apostles and affirmed by the Stoglav Synod (for the Savior and the saints were depicted crossing themselves this way on icons). Falsehood is the three-fingered sign, introduced later as a symbol lacking such deep dogmatic antiquity.
3. Concerning the Creed: The Truth is the unchanging Creed without the Filioque. Falsehood is any addition to it, destroying the equality of the Holy Trinity.
4. Concerning the Name: The Truth is the name Isus (transmitted through the Slavic tradition, bearing light). Falsehood is the distortion of the name to Iisus and others, as an attempt to break the spiritual connection with the ancient pronunciation blessed in Rus'.
5. Concerning Church Order: Everything that the Ecumenical Councils forbade to change (VI Ecumenical Council, Canon 19, on the immutability of traditions) is the Truth. Any reform carried out at the behest of secular authorities or a bribed episcopate (as in the case of the union) is a lie from the devil.

Conclusion

The Donation of Constantine became the seed from which the tree of heresy grew, entangling the whole world with its intrigues. The Pope of Rome and the hierarchies following him, having fallen away from the Truth, now operate not only in the Vatican but also in the information field, substituting concepts and presenting lies as truth.

But there is a Guardian in Heaven and there is an Island of Truth on earth — the Ancient Orthodoxy (Old Belief). It alone preserves the apostolic traditions, not participating in the intrigues of this age. Everyone seeking salvation must look not at grandeur or false miracles, but at the conformity of faith and rite to that Truth which was once delivered to the saints (Jude 1:3). Do not be deceived, for the wolf is near, and his sheep's clothing is becoming transparent to those who are spiritually perceptive.

Amen.
